The Annual Staff of the Lynden Christian
High School
presents to you
1958 Excelsior

Forward

We have had a good year—parents, teachers, pupils, the superintendent and the board have worked hard. Now at the close of the year we join in praising an thanking God for another year of Christian education.

We realize that we cannot give you a complete picture of life at L.C.H.S. in a book, but we have tried to include all the events and people that have made our year interesting. We hope this Excelsior may give you a clear picture of our school and that as you page through it you may have a deeper appreciation for Lynden Christian High School.

We have chosen as our theme this year . . .

"The Fear of the Lord is the Beginning of Wisdom."

Psalm 111:10

Dedication

To our Superintendent:

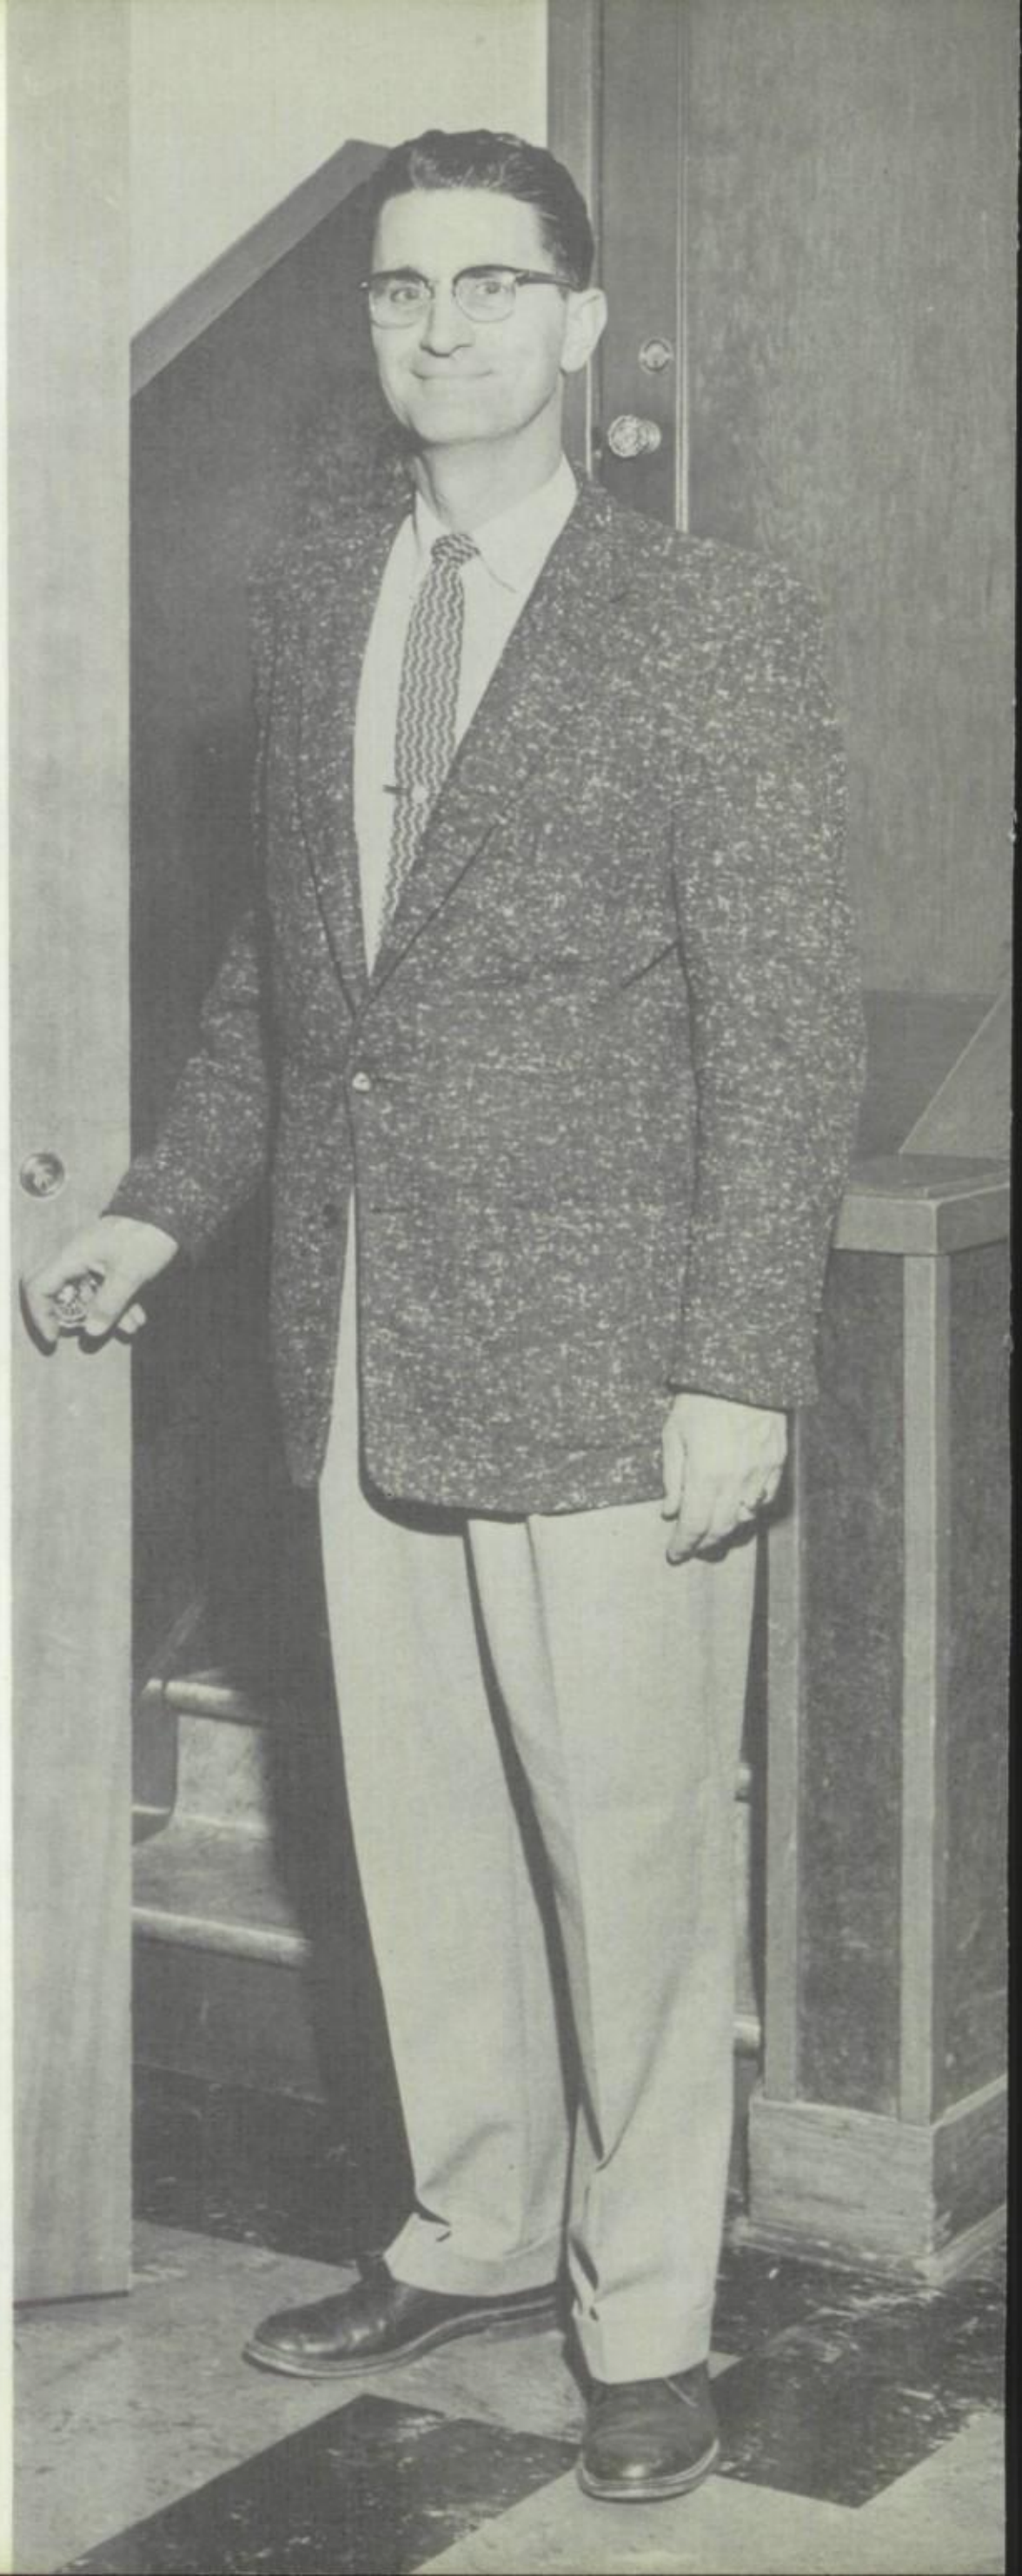
The Annual Staff finds it indeed fitting to dedicate this 1958 Excelsior to you, Mr. Mark Vander Ark.

Your strong Christian character revealed to us these past three years has made us respect you and seek your Christian guidance in our school activities.

Your desire to do justice to all students has been realized by us. Your endeavor to uphold Christ in all things has been revealed in your earnest desire to be an effective witness for Him.

To you, who so earnestly dedicated your life to the cause of Christian instruction, we wish God's richest blessing and pray that you may continue at Lynden Christian for many years in the future.

Sincerely,
The Annual Staff



Administration

School Board

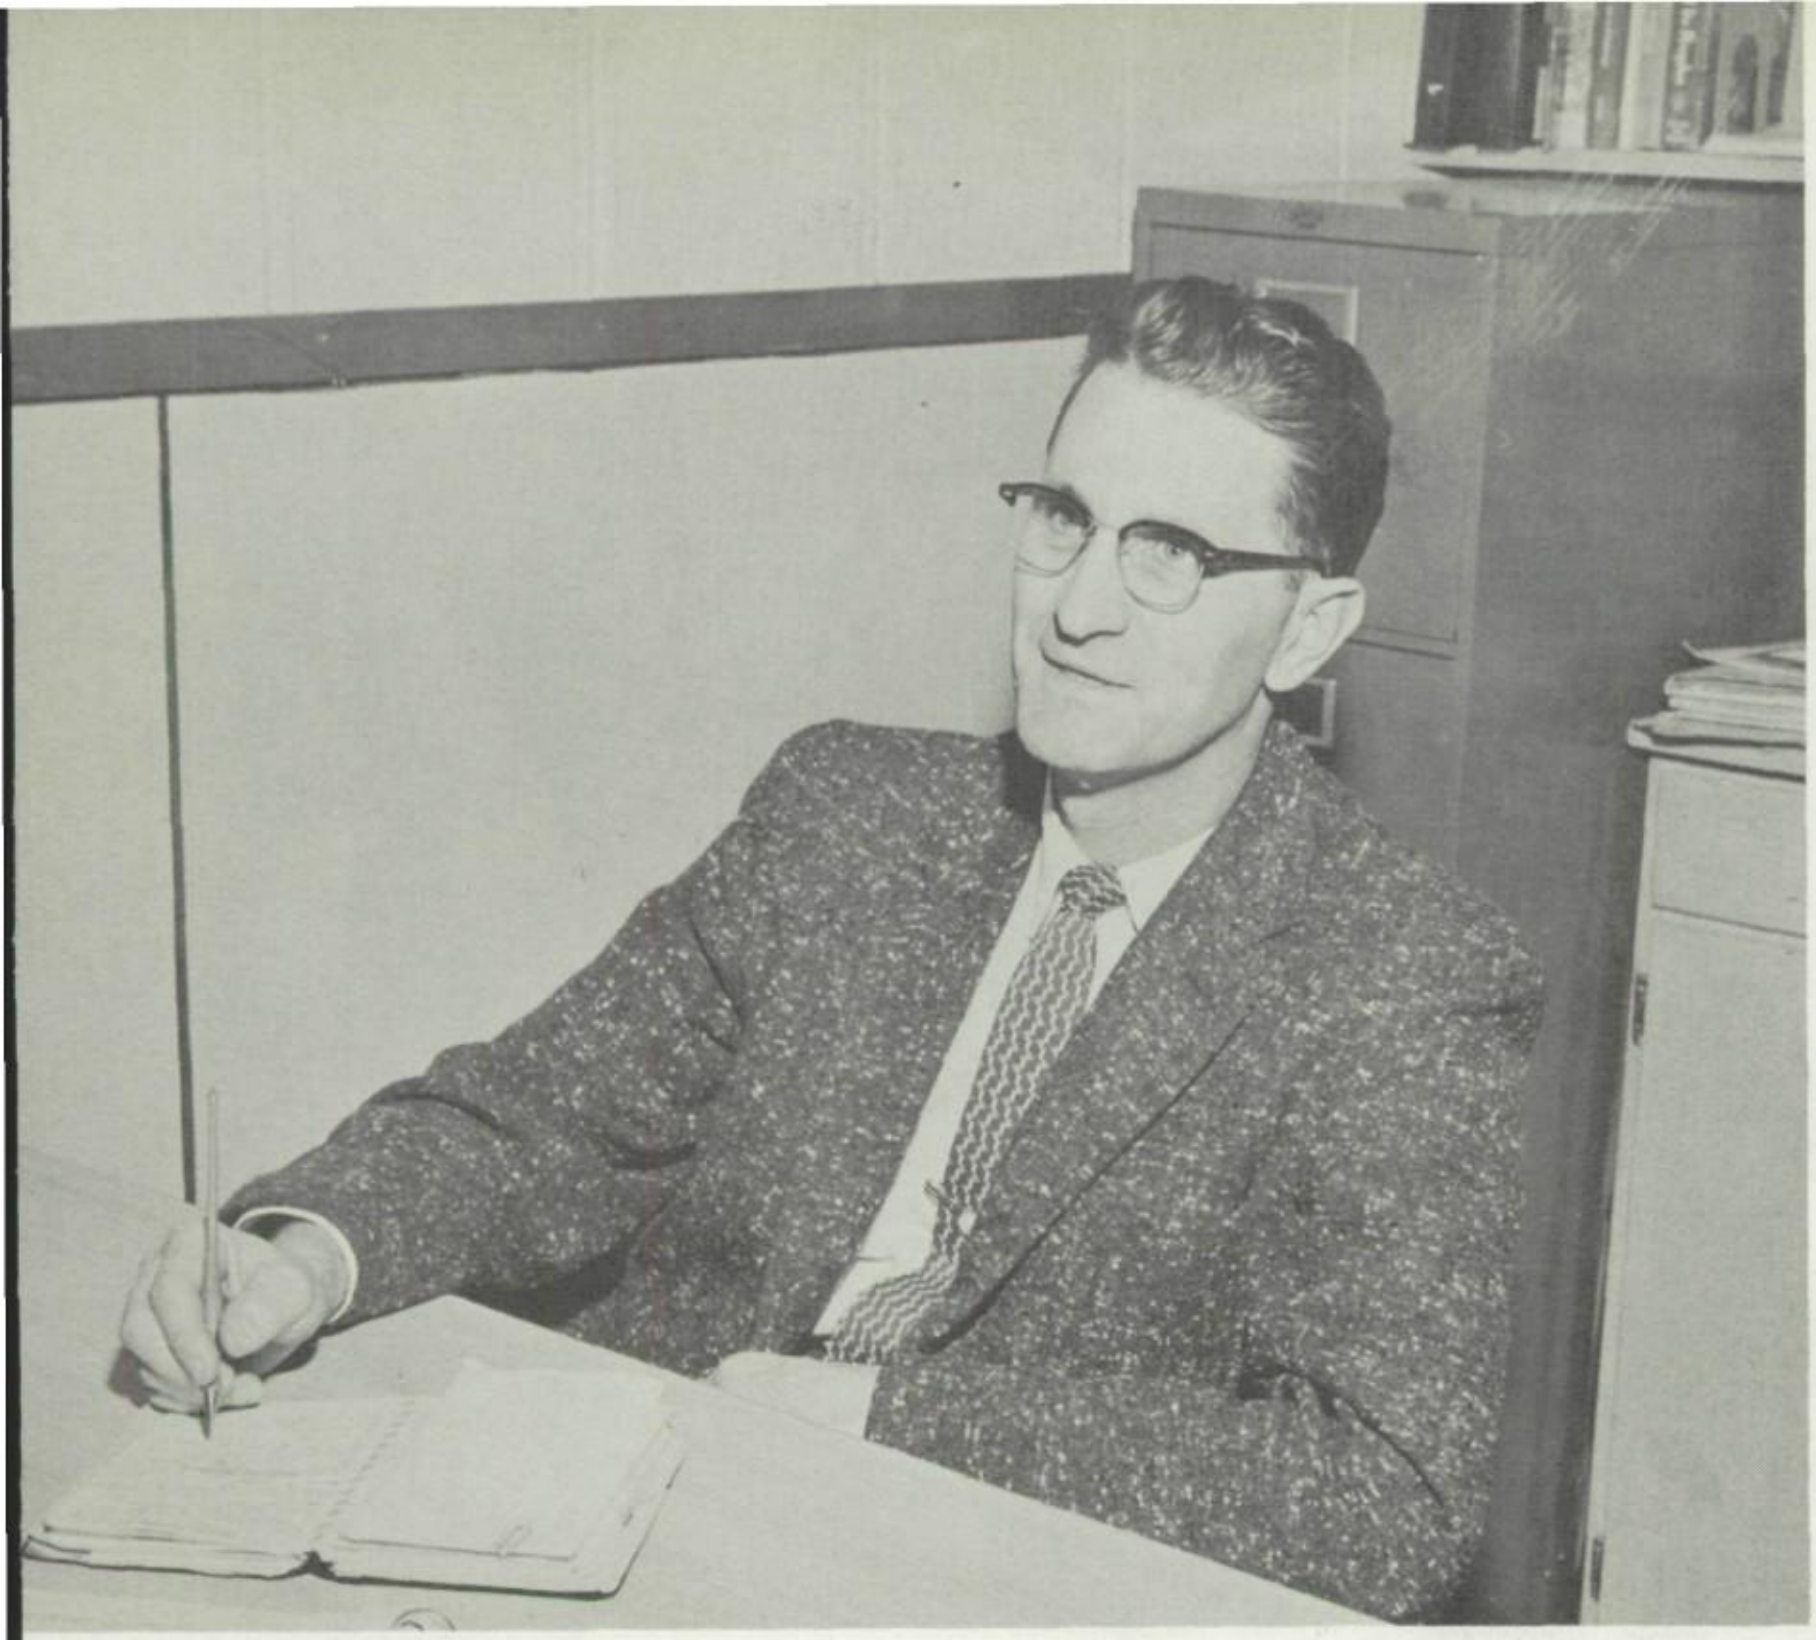
Dear Graduation Class of 1958,

The Lynden Christian School Board extends to you, graduation class of 1958, its heartiest congratulation. May the Christian education given here be hallowed to your hearts.

The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom. This is a beautiful verse for a graduation class to choose. It is not only reasonable that graduates of a Christian High School fear God but it is advantageous to you. It is wisdom; it will direct you to speak and act as becomes you. It is the head of wisdom. That is as we read it. It is the beginning of wisdom. Men can never begin to be wise till they begin to fear God.

Class of 1958, it is the boards sincere desire that each and every one of you fear God and be truly wise.

The school board,
Edw. F. Kok, president



Superintendent's Message

To The Class Of '58:

You are products of the year of three-phase rockets and of satellite launching. May I liken your graduation to being launched into orbit? Do you mind being called a little moon?

To be successfully launched into orbit is indeed an achievement worthy of acclaim. Congratulations are in order to you and your parent and teacher launchers.

But just in what respect are you now "in orbit"? Not in the sense that now life becomes a perpetual smooth glide in space. You are not in orbit as a robot man, the object of one tremendous push and then floating about on the mysterious interaction of physical and spiritual forces over which you have no control.

To the graduate of a Christian High School, the key to being properly in orbit is found in your well chosen class text: "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of Wisdom." The beginning of wisdom is not to be likened to the first phase of the rocket motor, or even the three phases of launching mechanisms. The beginning of wisdom must rather be thought of as being the essence, the first principle, the most important part of wisdom. Thus, the fear of the Lord becomes the very core of the propelling power by which you are sent off into life, and by which the entire orbit of your life is given continuing force and constant direction.

Graduates, cherish the fear of the Lord in your hearts. Only in this way will your life's orbit continue in strength and richness. Only on the basis of true fear of the Lord can you expect the orbit of your life to continue on into an eternity of fellowship and praise with our Heavenly Father. On the other hand the orbit of a young life not based on the fear of the Lord can only result in gradual decline and ultimate failure like a disintegrated Sputnik. So, young people, cherish the Fear of the Lord in the way the hymn says:

O how I fear Thee Living God.

With deepest, tenderest fears;

And worship Thee with trembling hope

And penitential tears.

Yours in His Service,

MARK VANDER ARK

Student Council

Al Stremler, vice-president; Orv Vander Griend, president; Myrna Slotemaker, treasurer; Vonnie Likkel secretary.

The Student Council of 1957-58 with Mr. Vander Ark as advisor and with the wonderful cooperation of the Student Body has enjoyed working for and with the students of Lynden Christian High.

The Student Council's first task in guiding student activities was to put on the "Mixer" by which students became better acquainted. We then appointed members to take care of chapel services and schedule assemblys.

As our basketball season approached the Council elected team managers, supervised the election of cheer leaders, and sold student body tickets.

Noon hour activities and the school paper were also initiated by the Council.

At the end of the school year, all the students were invited to the school party, letters and awards were given for sports and various other activities, and the election of Student Council officers for the following year was held.

The Student Council wishes to extend a word of thanks to the Student Body for their cooperation in making the year 1957-58 a successful one.

Senior Class History

We, the class of '58, come to the end of our high school days. We are standing at the portal of a new commencement. We have spent many a happy and hard hour these past four years. Let us review some of these highlights.

The first two weeks, we, as Freshmen, shyly wandered through the halls. But after the Mixer we felt a little more at ease. Our Freshmen Class Advisors were Mr. Andrew DeJong and Mr. William Blake.

When we returned as Sophomores, Miss Marian Van Dyken and Mr. Bernard Engbers wereour advisors. Our hike up Sumas Mountain was a thriller. After the lost were found, we went to Berthusen's Park for supper

As Juniors, we were kept quite busy. We chose our class rings, a few weeks after school started. This is now the standard ring of our school. The greatest event of this year was the Junior-Senior Banquet. A lot of carefully planned work went into the Japanese theme "SAYONARA." Our class advisors were Mrs. Marie Meenk, and Miss Marion Vander Ark.

Then we came to our last year. The third week of school we started planning for our graduation. We are proud of our fellow seniors who have excelled in music, debate, sports, and other activities. Our Masquerade party and Senior Skip Day are two unforgettable events. Miss Nora Mae Vredeveld, and Mr. John Vander Veen were our class advisors.

Now as we stand here, facing the world, we realize how much our Christian training and guidance will mean to us. We thank God for this wonderful opportunity which has been ours.

We wish all of you could have seen this beautiful room portraying brilliant Japanese color and also felt its decided Japanese atmosphere.

The Junior-Senior Banquet

On May 10, 1957 we, as Juniors, honored the Seniors at the traditional Junor-Senior banquet. The theme "Sayonara" means goodbye in Japanese, and the setting was in a Japanese garden. Clusters of pink and white wisteria draped over the bamboo wall and brilliantly colored Japanese lanterns hung from the laticed roof. Behind the garden scene Mt. Fujiyama rose majestically.

These ten Japanese servants dressed in black and red kimonas were chosen out of the Sophomore class.

The little log bridge leading from the rock garden over the pool and to the teahouse.

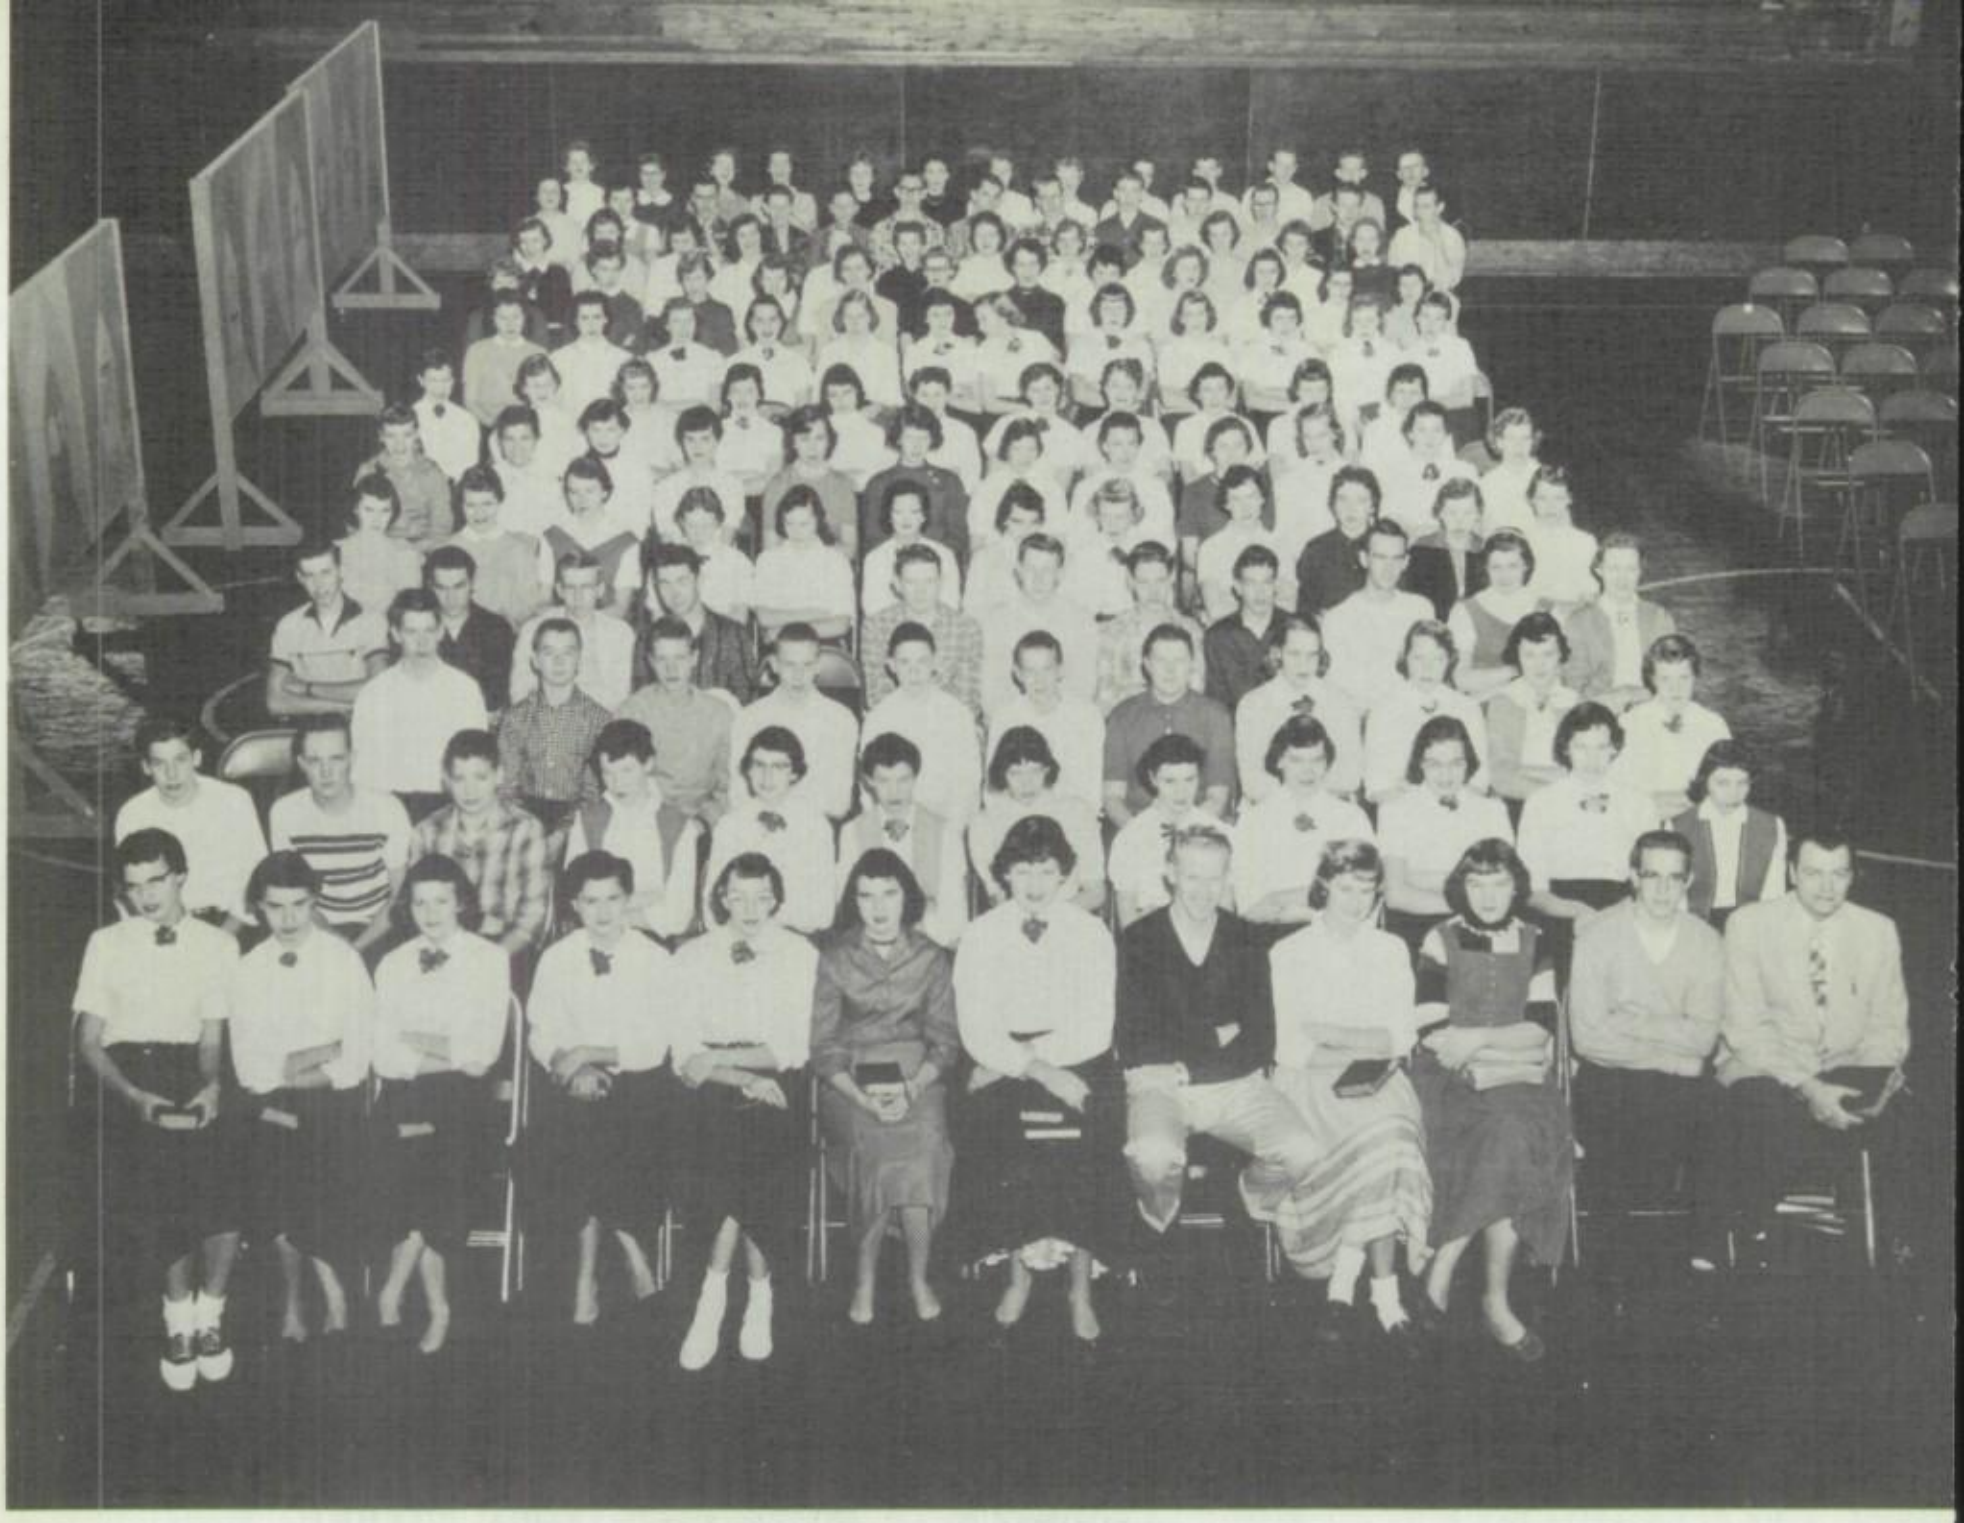
Organizations

"Take my hands and let them move at the impulse of thy love."



Mission Club

The Mission Club distinguishes itself by serving the community in many ways. This group distributes food baskets at Thanksgiving and collects toys for the Marietta Indian children at Christmas. This club also witnesses for the Lord by participating in the "Indian Christian Hour" on radio station KPUG and by holding jail services. A new project that was undertaken by the club was to put scripture texts in the halls of our school.

LETTERMENS CLUB

This newly organized honorary society is made up of boys who have earned an "L". Coming from this club are the Vigilantes who maintain order at the basketball games. The organization also takes care of noon hour activities and promotes sports in general for the welfare of the school sports program.

PEP CLUB

The purpose of the Pep Club is to help uphold the school spirit by attending the basketball games. Not only does this organization give the team support during the game but it also serves the players lunch afterwards. The team is annually invited to a banquet at the close of the basketball season in their honor which is put on by the Pep Club.

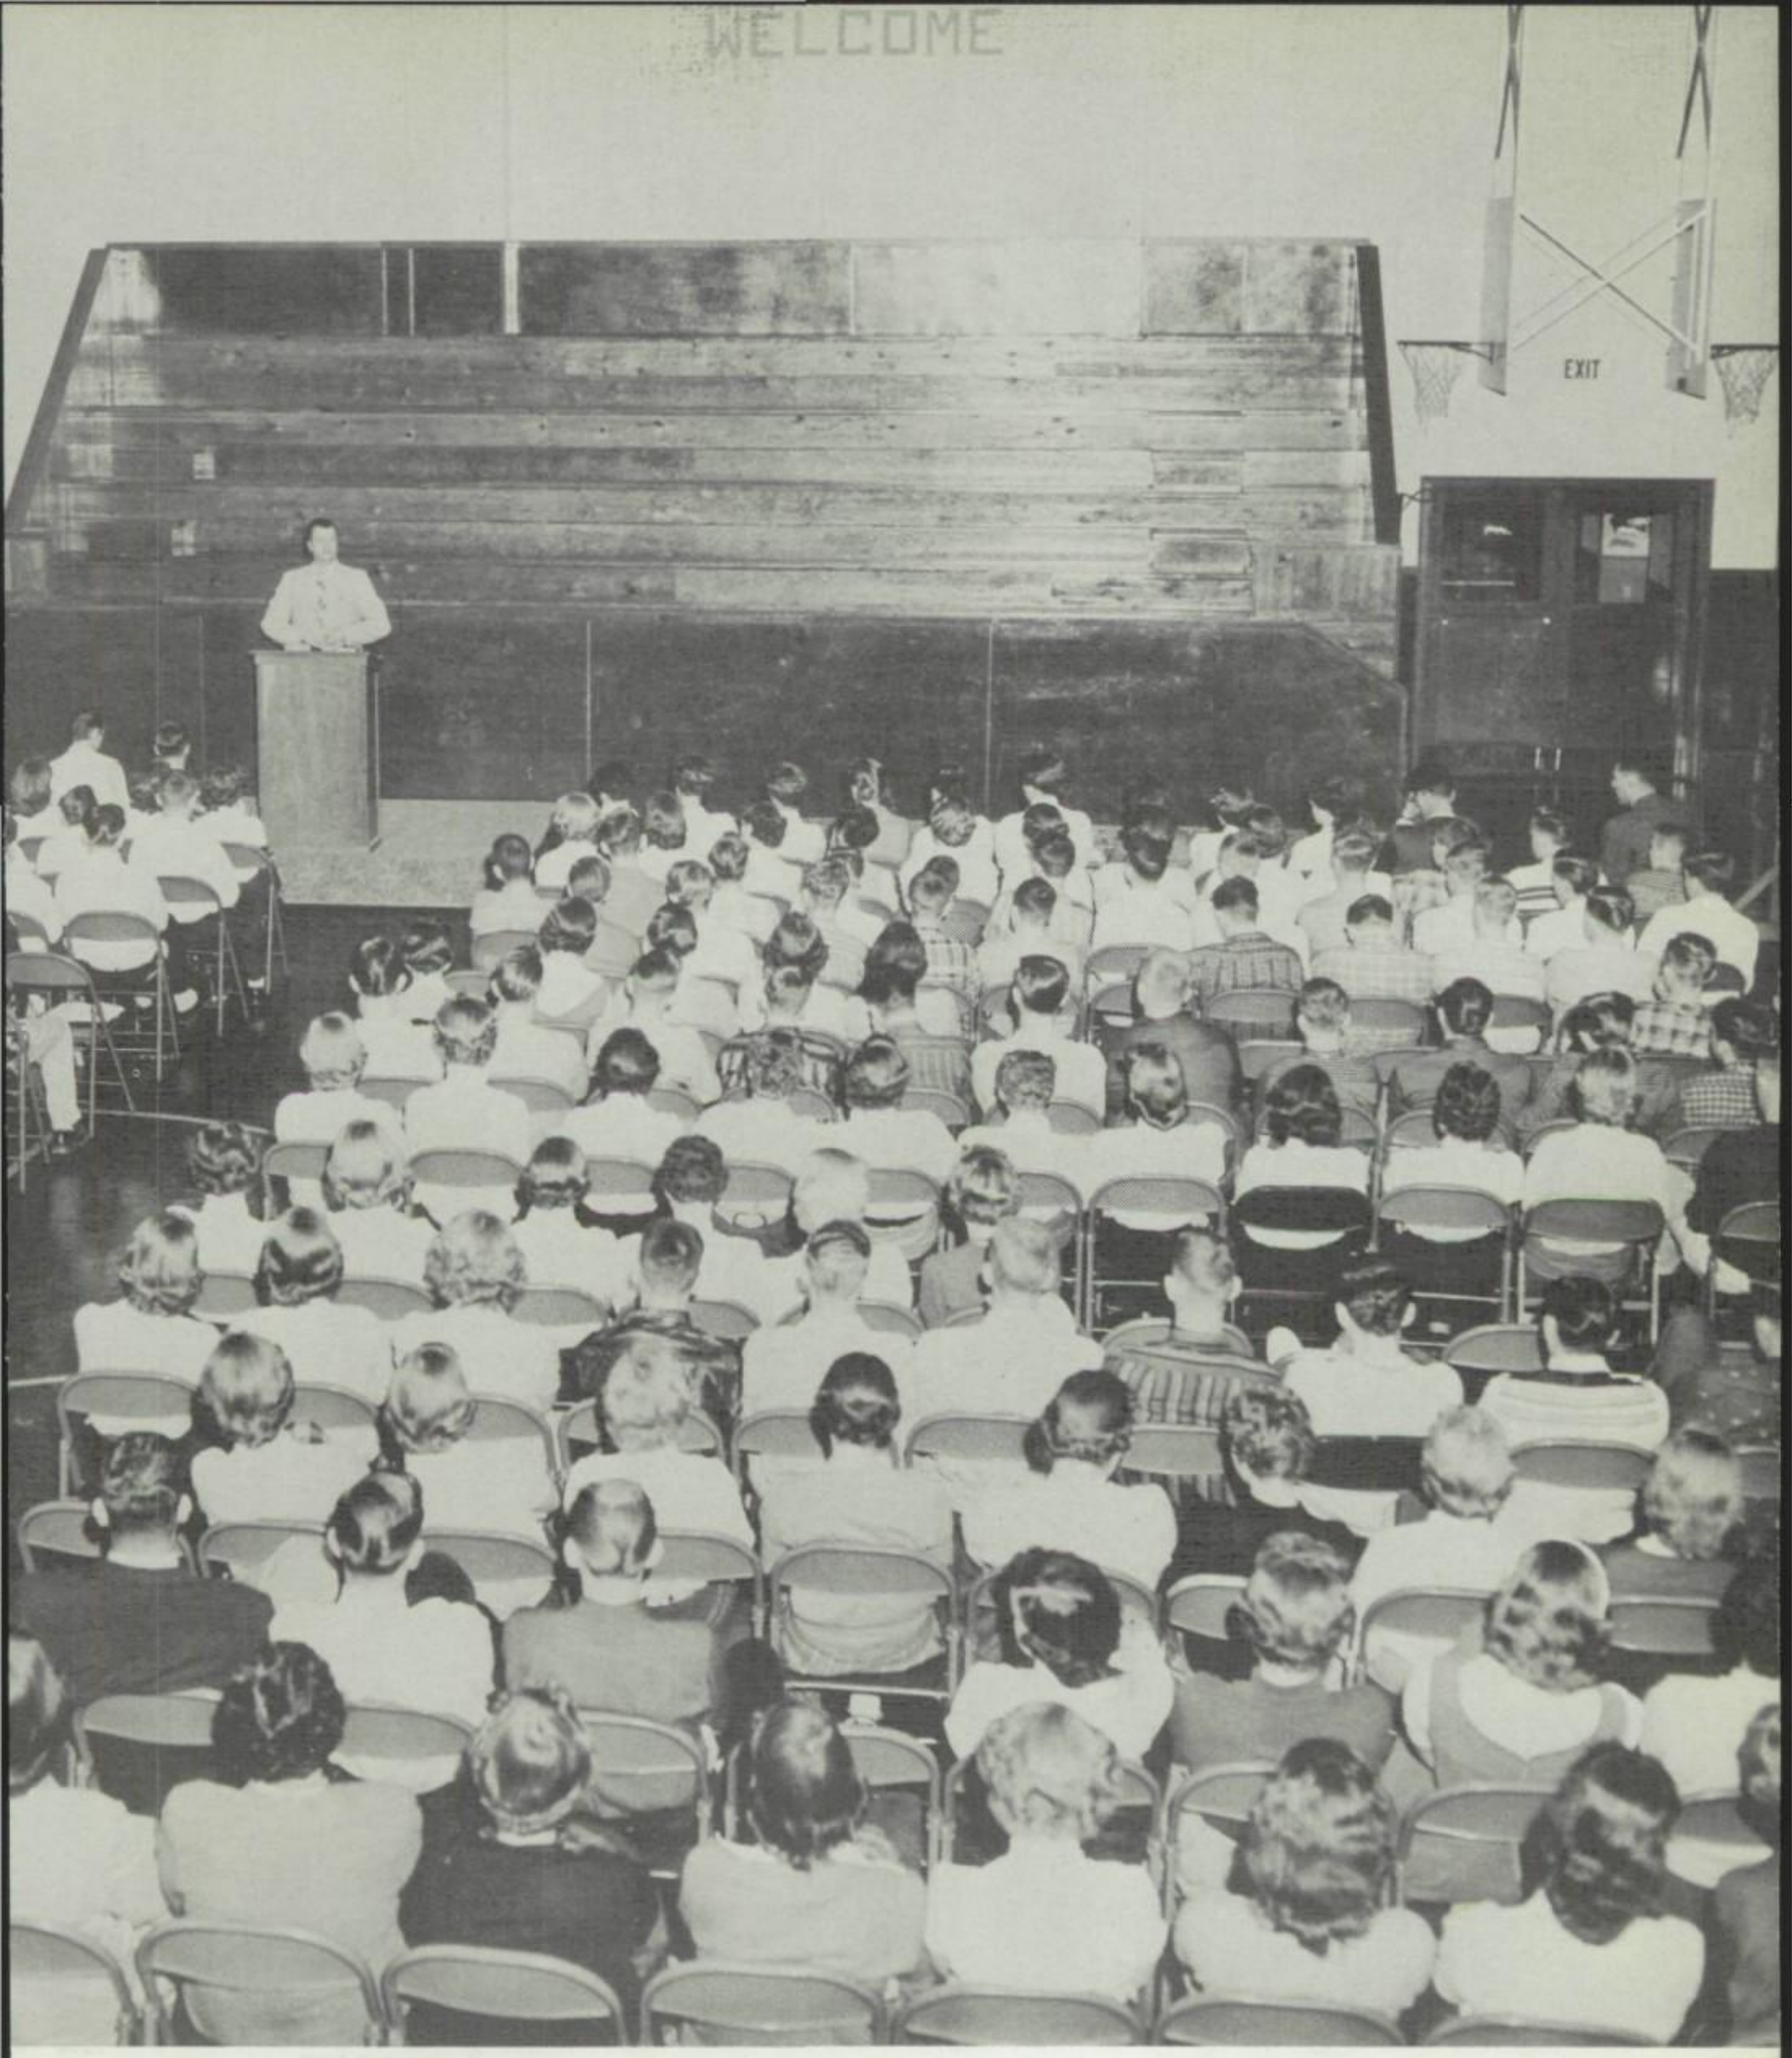
Chapel



Being that Chapel is a distinct characteristic of a Christian school it is fitting that we should have these exercises twice a week. Every Tuesday and Thursday morning the entire student body and faculty comes together for a half hour of singspiration and devotion. Student participation is emphasized and they take part by leading the singing, rendering a special number and reading a portion of scripture. We have a member of the faculty give the message at our Tuesday chapel and on Thursdays we have a special speaker, a film, or a student speaker. In these chapel services we are reminded of our theme "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom."

HARLEQUIN CLUB

The Harlequins presented . . .

Last fall the Drama Club adopted the new name "Harlequins." Tryouts were held for the club and the Juniors and Seniors could also try out for the play, "The Road Back," which was successfully performed December 4 and 6. The play was also given in Everett in January. Funds earned by the play were used to buy stage sets and also used to promote certain school activities.

"Come on, I dare you. Come on, get up and hit me!"

"Say you! Your apartment's on the other side of the hall. Beat it over and stay there until you're sent for!"

After each student has gladly received one copy of the High Light the editor and typists return to a normal routine until two weeks pass — when they must again go through the exhaustive task of preparing news tidbits for the students' enjoyment. Each paper includes articles which are fancy, plain, humorous, serious, and sometimes educational. The interesting way the paper is prepared by the staff makes it something the entire student body is proud of. The second semesters' advisor was Mr. Gordon De Young.

Student Life

"Take myself and I will be ever only all for thee."

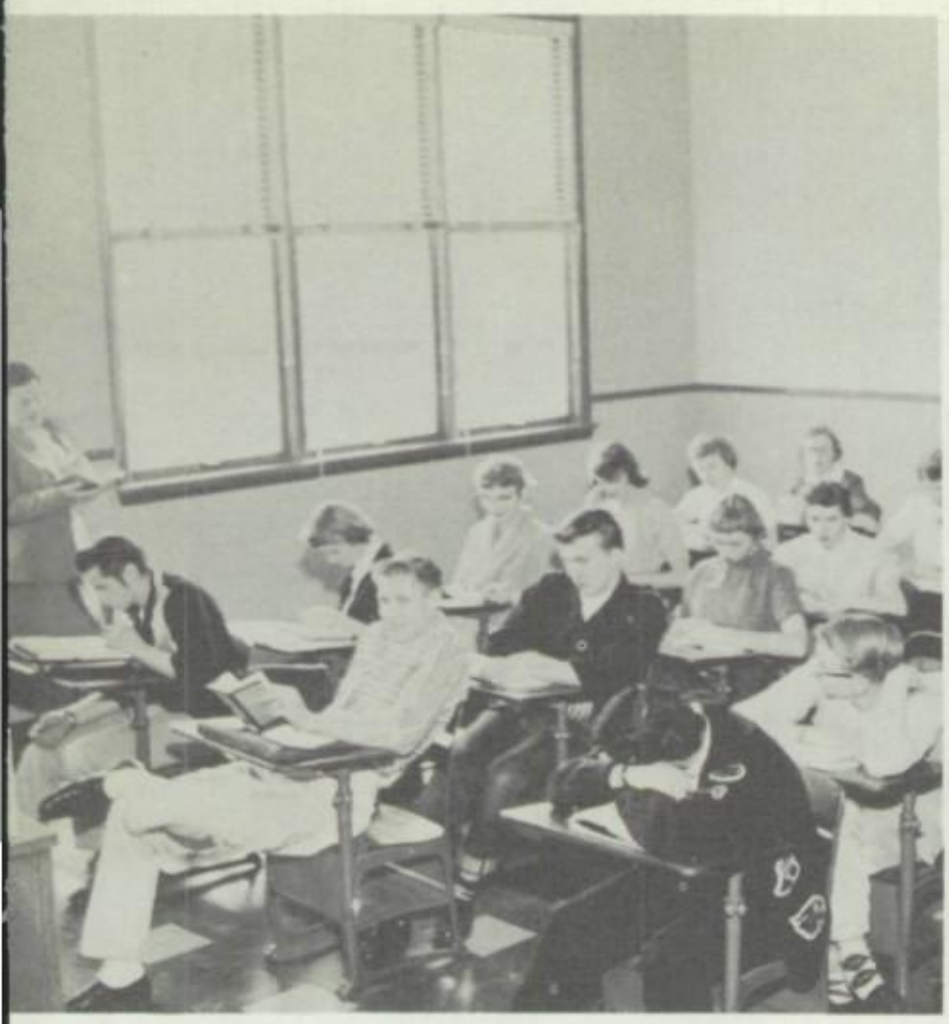
Registration is a merry mix-up of various feeling, expressions and hopes that this year will be even better than the last.

The Senior Class assembly featured these crooners in a dramatic version of "Bye, Bye, Love."

Every Student . . .

A main attraction of the "Mixer" was when two quite sophisticated teachers became quite unsophisticated in a race of donning an odd assortment of clothes of the opposite sex.

The Christmas party was like a recipe. The ingredients: a decorated tree, a few games, a lunch, and a promotion of true Christmas spirit which resulted in a happy ending to 1957.



The keywords to Miss Vredeveld's class are co-operation, except when there is none, hard work, except when laziness is present, and an abundance of learning plus a little nonsense.

Shop . . . every boy's favorite class. The shop housed a new attraction for the girls this year, too.

Finds Time and Energy . . .

"He gets letters, rolls and rolls of letters. Dear Keekus, please get well."

Mr. Hoekstra's jaw dropped, his eyes widened, and his hair stood on end at the one little word "surprise" uttered by the A Cappela Choir.

Spirited song fests were a vital part of our Firs Bible Conference sponsored by the Mission Club.

Harvest time brings on the spirit of thankfulness an the wish to share our blessings with others.

to Participate in . . .

and Enjoy . . .

To wear your heart on your sleeve was honorable on February 14th. This year the Senior girls treated the red and white student body to the second annual "red and white party."

The senior's annual Masquerade party was a small "melting pot of nations" that was bubbling with enthusiasm and clean wholesome fun.

Here's the best judge of Holstein cows. We're proud of the many honors Ron won at the National Dairy Congress in Iowa last fall.

Not only do we have a very capable Latin teacher, but also quite a conductor in our midst. His brilliant mind caused him to combine music and Latin into one at the performance of the Latin choir at our Christmas party.

Extra Activities . . .

There was a buzz of excitement when the Juniors received their rings. Many brought them for $20 and gave them away for a promise.

"The girl from Okinawa." Kay Gosser came to our school in January after previously studying in 16 different schools.

Poor and bedraggled Marilyn and Flossie somehow managed to arrange some impossible poses even if they are from the weaker sex.
